Transcriber's Office

March 24, 1997 LB 465

they need these guns for protection; for protection against their neighbors. Some of these towns may have 300 people and maybe fewer, and yet they are scared to death. These big strapping Nebraska macho men, scared to death and carrying guns. And here is poor, little, old me being threatened by people all over the state, I don't even wear a garment that would conceal a weapon, and I'm against this bill. What kind of nonsense and craziness is abroad in the land in Nebraska? I will not vote yes for anything on this bill. And, by the way, when we were in the Judiciary Committee, and the media who reported on it didn't point that out, even though I emphasized it, I voted against every amendment proposed to that bill because I said then, as I say now, I will not be shown voting yes on anything pertaining to this bill. And I voted against every amendment offered. As atrocious as this bill, and as many amendments as people are offering, if we should reach a point where they are adopted, this bill will be substantially different from what it is now; not the same bill and it ought to be referred back to committee, and I will make such a motion if we reach that point. Now my motion to reconsider is because we need a full-blown discussion of this bill, no matter how that discussion occurs. Now if Senator Maurstad or somebody else wants to call the question, call the question. You'll just make it necessary for me to offer additional motions, and then I'll take charge of the bill. As it was before, I had to wait in line for my turn to speak, and others spoke, and others will continue to spoke...speak, so you will not frustrate people or cut off the argument. I don't know if they've got some of the NRA extremists out in the Rotunda calling the shots and pulling strings on people in this Chamber, but they don't pull strings on me, and I don't care how many guns they got, I don't care how many people they intimidate, I don't care how many people they threaten at election time, I don't...

SPEAKER WITHEM: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...care how much money they give at election time. I have spoken nine minutes, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER WITHEM: You have spoken nine minutes and six seconds.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Phew! Thank you. I will accept that. I
